If you would like more information on the different ways you can become a Resource Parent, please contact one of the following:

Aspiranet

805-325-2429

www.AspiranetFamilies.org

Aspiranet foster and adoption programs work to connect children, youth, and young adults to safe, caring relationships that can last a lifetime. Our services work together so that children thrive, families are empowered, and communities are strengthened.

Casa Pacifica

www.casapacifica.org

Casa Pacifica believes that children who live in nurturing, stable environments will mature into healthy, productive members of society. Casa Pacifica provides the foundation to connect kids in need of hope, love, and opportunity with loving, caring resource parents. You can change the future of a child by becoming a Resource Parent to one of the many children in need in Santa Barbara County.

Family Care Network, Inc.

805-781-3535

www.fcni.org

Family Care Network, Inc. (FCNI) is a not-for-profit Community-Based Organization serving children and families impacted by trauma on the Central Coast. Established in 1987, the agency now operates multiple intensive programs designed to empower and support our community's children, youth and families to live healthier lives and achieve their goals.

Pathway Family Services

805-245-6647

www.pfsffa.org

As a faith-based non-profit foster care agency, Pathway's mission is to "see each child's destiny changed to impact generations to come." Our vision is to reach an abused and abandoned generation with help, hope, and healing. Pathway Foster Parenting is a pathway to renewed hope and a better future.

Our County. Our Kids. Elevates.

866-899-2649

www.ourcountyourkids.org

Our County. Our Kids. is the resource parent and kinship caregiver recruitment, information and support program at the County of the Santa Barbara Department of Social Services, Child Welfare Services Division. Elevates, our Faith Initiative, is founded on the belief that churches are natural safety networks, uniquely equipped to wrap around families that feel called to become resource parents, and provide critical support and assistance to these families, helping them be successful.
